Call to Worship

L: Bless the LORD, O my soul, for the Lord our God is very great.

P: God is clothed with honour and majesty, wrapped in brightness like a garment.

L: God stretches out the heavens like a tent, riding on wings of the wind.

P: O Lord, in wisdom You have made each unique creature. With all of them, we come to praise You.

L: Let us praise God's holy name together!

Hymn

My Hope is Built on Nothing Less

Green No. 405

Prayer for Our Humanity

L: Praise be to You, O God, for the wonders of Your creation. You spin the galaxies and stretch out the seas to the furthest horizon. You lift the curtain of dawn to end the night. You give the earth its seasons and each creature its lifespan, breathing life into each precious soul. And so we come to praise You, knowing human greatness is a mere shadow of Yours. Breathe Your Spirit into us once again, and inspire us to serve You with creativity and commitment, and the honesty and humility we meet in Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord.

P: Lord Jesus Christ, You call us to walk Your way in the world, serving our neighbors and loving our enemies. We confess these are not easy choices for us. We seek acknowledgement for our own achievements, and enjoy being served. Forgive us for seeking our own way rather than Your way.

Affirmation of Faith

P: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again; He ascended into heaven, He is seated at the right hand of the Father, and He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

L: Please join me in the prayer of dedication.

The book follows the giraffes and their journey across the country in a makeshift wooden crate on the back of a truck, driven by a young Dust Bowl rowdy named Woodrow.

Mental health is a universal human

"God will not falter or lose heart until justice prevails throughout the earth."

(Isaiah 42:4)

A World with Mental Health Justice for all is God's Dream for Us

This year's Neighbors in Need theme "Mental Health Justice for All: Mental Health is a Universal Human Right" highlights our God-given right to mental health.

Everyone is created in God's image, and everybody should receive quality mental health care.

In 2015, the General Synod of the United Church of Christ passed a resolution to become WISE (Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, and Engaged) for mental health.

A just world for all is a world where the human rights and well-being of people with mental health challenges are respected, no matter who you are or where you are in life's mental health journey.

We believe we all have a God-given right to the following to support mental health:

- 1. The right to be protected from known harms to mental health; a universal right which applies to the entire population, but especially the vulnerable including children and oppressed peoples.
- 2. The right to access quality and affordable care when a person is experiencing mental health challenges.
- 3. The right to freedom and dignity, including the right of choice for mental health care.

Visit www.mhn-ucc.org to learn more about these mental health principles.

The 2024 Neighbors in Need theme

“Mental Health Justice for All: Mental Health is a Universal Human Right”

provides us with an opportunity to re-ignite our efforts to build a more justice world for all, dismantling the shame and stigma of mental health challenges.

We invite you to be part of God’s work of mental health justice, join the WISE movement for mental health in your congregation, and support the Neighbors in Need offering.

October 10th is World Mental Health Day.
